

Horizons – by E Hyde

Lay me down, against, horizons
Pray be proud, forget, disguises
Sky, meets the land, the sun, falls down again
Miles away

I wanna be somewhere else alright
Don't wanna be in this police cell tonight
I wanna get, right to where I'm going too

I'm gonna sail horizons
Gonna say hells rising
It's a display like lightening
Just wanna be, walking around in style, for a while

Tame me now, regrets, sometimes
Play it loud, despair, in night life

I wanna be somewhere else alright
Don't wanna be in this police cell tonight
I wanna get, right to where I'm going too

I'm gonna sail horizons
Gonna say hells rising
It's a display like lightening
Just wanna be, walking around in style, for a while

I'm gonna sail horizons
Gonna say hells rising
It's a display like lightening
Gonna be, walking around in style, for a while

Break.

Fool, be the man, who lies, to a friend
Miles away
